Cross Country Skiing & Fat Tire Trail Updates - Ski conditions provided by KeweenawTrails.com/trail-reports/

- Michigan Tech – Good Morning! Conditions are looking GREAT. Uppers are dragged and have a new track set. The Crew is in Competition presently and will head down to the Lowers after that following the same plan. Over all trails are looking quite good even if I would like to more of a base. There are some thin spots on Down Under and down by the river on Tanglewood and Homestead. Lower trails still have some overhanging branches so be aware. Have a great Ski! (12/5/2025)
- Swedetown – Good morning! We groomed and re-set track using snowmobile implements today, on all of the trails open so far. We were having some snow buildup problems on our equipment today, so watch out for any snow ridges, especially on the intersections. Overall, conditions are pretty good! Reports from skiers are that the tracks are suprisingly fast despite the cold temps, with decent kick. We will be continuing the daily work crew cutting tree damage today from 12 noon to 2:30, continuing to work on opening up Greenstone and Powderhouse. Meet us at the Chalet at 12 or ski out to meet us! Enjoy your ski everyone!(12/4/2025)
- Swedetown Snow Bike - No update. (12/1/2025)
- Chassell Ski Trails- Lightly tilted ahead of today's tracking of the approximately 3" of powder.(12/4/2025)
- Chassell Snowshoe Trails - 2" of new snow. Lower half of the Yellow Trail has been cleared and broken opened. Orange trail has just one section on the upper south side to be done. Planning to go out Friday to finish the upper Yellow trail. (12/3/2025)
- Maasto Hiihto – City side trails rolled. (12/3/2025)
- Churning Rapids – City side trails rolled. (12/3/2025)
- Churning Rapids Snow Bike - Volunteers have started trying to open the trails, but it has been very slow going with all of the trees down after the heavy snow around Thanksgiving. We hope to have some trails groomed by December 6/7 weekend. We could use help clearing trails if you can get out for a walk with a loppers or small saw. Most of Churning Rapids still needs to be cleared (PowPow, Finni Creek, Lake Annie, Basswoods, Jimmy Dean). (12/2/2025)
